The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday August 29. to Saturday September 2. 1727.

St. James's, September 2.

THE following humble Addreſs of the Lord-Lieutenant, Cuſtos Rotulorum, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders, aſſembled at the Aſſizes held at Stafford for the County of Stafford, upon Tueſday the 8th Day of Auguſt, in the firſt Year of His Majeſty's Reign, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the Abſence of the Right Honourable the Earl Ferrers Lord-Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the ſaid County. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

PErmit us to take this firſt Opportunity of a General Meeting in this County, to approach your Majeſty's Royal Preſence with Expreſſions of our deep Concern for the ſudden Loſs of our late moſt gracious Sovereign your Royal Father, and likewiſe to congratulate your Majeſty on your peaceable and quiet Acceſſion to the Imperial Crowns of theſe Realms.

We were revived from our Concern for the Loſs of your Royal Father, with your Majeſty's Aſſurances from the Throne, ſtedfaſtly to maintain our Laws, Religion, Rights and Privileges, and to promote your Peoples Good: And when we remember your Majeſty's mild and gentle Adminiſtration while you had but a temporal Regency over us, we can't but expreſs our intire Confidence and firm Aſſurance, that you will always eſteem the Love of your People the beſt Support of your Government, and that we ſhall become a great and happy People under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, and ſee our Trade flouriſh, the National Debts gradually paid off, our Religion protected and defended, and Peace and Tranquility eſtabliſhed in all your Majeſty's Dominions.

And that theſe valuable Bleſſings may be had and perpetuated to our lateſt Poſterity, may it pleaſe Almighty God to grant your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort a long and happy Reign over us; and that a Prince of your auguſt Iſſue, equal to your ſelf in Virtue and Magnanimity, may always ſit on the Throne of theſe Realms; and that you and they may aſſert and maintain the undoubted Regal Rights at home and abroad, as well as the Rights of your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, againſt all Factions and Oppoſers whatſoever.

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen of the Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace and Gentlemen, aſſembled at the Aſſizes held for the County of Norfolk the 7th Day of Auguſt, 1727, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, one of His Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, and Lord-Lieutenant of the ſaid County. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, being ſenſible of the many Bleſſings which we enjoyed under the Government of your late Royal Father, were truly afflicted at a Loſs which nothing but your Succeſſion to his Crown and Virtues could compenſate. Every Action of your Life, and every Declaration which your Majeſty hath been pleaſed to make to your People, give us ſuch unqueſtionable Aſſurances of Happineſs under ſo great and juſt a King, that all the Miſeries which the God of Heaven the Puniſher of Ingratitude can inflict, ought to be our Portion, ſhould we not do our utmoſt to make your Crown ſit eaſy upon your ſacred Head.

For your Sake, and for our own, may you ever, as at preſent, continue happy in your Royal Conſort, and bleſs'd in your numerous and illuſtrious Iſſue; and may no Diſturbances ever moleſt the Tranquility of your Royal Mind.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that if any unforeſeen Accident ſhould call for an extraordinary Aſſiſtance from your Subjects, we ſhall be always ready to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes for the Service of your Majeſty, to whom under God we owe the happy Enjoyment of all that is dear to us.

The

[Price Three Pence.]

The following humble Addreſs of the Conſtables and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Lewes, in the County of Suſſex, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Pelham, Eſq, and Sir Nicholas Pelham, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Herbert Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

THE great Loſs we were ſurprized with by the ſudden Death of your Royal Father our late moſt gracious Sovereign, would have been inſupportable, had not Divine Providence ſupplied that Loſs to us by your Majeſty's happy and quiet Acceſſion to the Imperial Throne of your Anceſtors, on which we beg Leave with Hearts full of Joy to congratulate your Majeſty.

When we conſider the early Proofs your Majeſty hath given of your Concern for the Proteſtant Cauſe, in Defence of which you have ſignalized yourſelf by your Valour and Intrepidity in Foreign Countries; and when we call to our Minds the Wiſdom, Juſtice, and Care your Majeſty hath ſhewn amongſt us at the Time the Government was placed in your Hands, we cannot but be throughly convinced that a Prince, diſtinguiſhed by ſo many eminent Virtues, was formed to make this Nation happy.

It is in the ſincereſt Manner we approach your Majeſty with the utmoſt Aſſurances of our Zeal, Duty and Affection for your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and do humbly offer our Lives and Fortunes in the ſupport thereof, againſt any Attempt whatſoever.

That the Divine Providence which hath bleſſed the Beginning of your Majeſty's Reign with the happy Proſpect of a general Peace, may enable you to accompliſh that great Work; and that your Majeſty's Life may be long and proſperous; and that the Crown of theſe Realms may deſcend to your Royal Iſſue, and continue in your Family for ever, ſhall be the conſtant Prayers of,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and obedient Subjects.

The following humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Surrey, met at the Town of Kingſton upon Thames, at the Aſſizes held there for the ſaid County, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Onſlow and Sir Thomas Steavens, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Cheſterfield Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

PErmit us, moſt gracious Sovereign, among the Crowds of your moſt dutiful Subjects, to pay this grateful Tribute of our moſt ſincere Concern and Sorrow for the Death of your Royal Father; a Loſs inſupportable, had not Divine Providence ſupplied us in your ſacred Perſon with a Prince born for Empire, the Pride and Glory of your People, and the Delight of Mankind.

Your early and affectionate Declaration, that you would maintain your happy Subjects in thoſe invaluable Bleſſings, their Religion, Laws and Liberties, demands of us the Perfection of Duty and Loyalty; and we do in Return aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, in our ſeveral Stations, behave ourſelves as becomes the beſt of Subjects to the beſt of Kings.

It is with the greateſt Pleaſure we behold your Majeſty and the Nation bleſſed with a truly vertuous and pious Queen, who gives a Luſtre to the Crown ſhe wears, and is the Ornament of the Religion ſhe profeſſes: A numerous and Royal Progeny, deſcended from ſuch Parents, and educated under ſuch ſhining and glorious Examples, muſt perpetuate Happineſs to theſe Kingdoms. Charmed with this beauteous Proſpect, give us Leave, moſt Gracious Sovereign, to pray that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous, and that ſucceeding Generations may flouriſh under the Protection of your moſt illuſtrious Family.

The following humble Addreſs of the Lord Biſhop of Bath and Wells, and the Dean and Chapter, the Chancellour and Archdeacons, together with the whole Body of the Clergy throughout their ſeveral Deanaries, joyning in the ſame, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Reverend Dr. Brailsford Dean of Wells, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty George, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of Bath and Wells, the Dean and Chapter, the Chancellour, and Archdeacons, and the reſt of the Clergy of the Dioceſe, moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, and with Hearts full of Duty and Affection, to expreſs the great Concern we are under for the Loſs of our late gracious Sovereign, whom Providence hath removed from us; and alſo the Joy and Satisfaction we have in beholding your Majeſty, his Son and Succeſſour, placed by the ſame Providence in his Stead, and wearing the Crown of your Anceſtors in Peace and Proſperity. Happy in your own Virtues, and happy in thoſe of your Royal Conſort, who has ſhared the Bleſſing, and is joyned with you in the Care of a numerous hopeful Iſſue, the laſting Supports of your Glory, and the ſure Pledges of our Happineſs. Your Majeſty hath been hitherto inſtructing your Deſcendants by your own Example, ample, how they are to obey their Father and their Prince; and you are now ſetting them a Pattern of good Government, which, we pray God, you may long live to finiſh, and they continue for many Generations to copy after, by purſuing all thoſe wiſe and gracious Methods that conduce to the making a Prince truly great, and his People flouriſhing and proſperous.

Accept, Great Sir, theſe our moſt ſincere Wiſhes for your Majeſty and Royal Family. Theſe, Sir, are the aſſured Hopes which we juſtly conceive for ourſelves and Poſterity, when we ſee the Throne filled by a Prince, who, not having received his Birth from our Country, has done us the much greater Honour of making it his own, by a profeſſed Love and Eſteem for it, after a long Experience and Acquaintance with its People and Conſtitution; and thereby gained a Title to our Duty and Affection, antecedent to what he now juſtly claims to our Allegiance.

If any Thing can add Strength to the Obligations Chriſtian Subjects are under from their Religion to render your Majeſty the higheſt Honour and the ſtricteſt Obedience, theſe Duties muſt be more ſtrongly bound upon the whole Body of the Clergy, by the gracious Aſſurances your Majeſty has been pleaſed to give of particular Favour and Encouragement to the eſtabliſhed Church, for which every true Member of it, will, we hope, be ſure to make the moſt Chriſtian and dutiful Return to your Majeſty and your Royal Family, by cheriſhing in his Heart, as the Principle of his Obedience, that ſteady and faithful Loyalty which the Conſtitution of our Church is ſo careful to enjoyn in her Doctrines, and conſtantly expreſſes in her Devotions.

The following humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town-Council of the Burgh of Tayne, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Roſs, and Robert Monroe, Eſq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Albemarle Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, being deeply affected with the ſudden and unexpected Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign your Majeſty's Royal Father, of ever glorious Memory, do beg Leave to embrace this firſt Opportunity (in the midſt of our Grief) to teſtify the great and inexpreſſible Joy we have to ſee that Loſs ſo happily repaired to us by your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors; by which we find ourſelves fully ſecured in the Enjoyment of our Holy Religion, Laws and Liberties, not only by your Majeſty's Royal Declaration, but by the Experience we have already had (during the Reign of your late Royal Father) of your Majeſty's moſt prudent and mild Adminiſtration.

And when we reflect on the early Valour your Majeſty ſhewed, as a glorious Teſtimony of your true Affection to the Britiſh Cauſe, we have the pleaſing Proſpect before our Eyes (at this critical Conjuncture) of your Majeſty's Negotiations with the Princes of Europe being crowned with a ſafe, honourable and laſting Peace.

Theſe princely Virtues which ſo eminently ſhine in your Majeſty, will effectually tie the Hearts of all your faithful Subjects to your ſacred Perſon and Government, and eſtabliſh your Throne on that ſure Foundation; and all your Nations (having a true Senſe of their Happineſs under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign) will join with us in ſending up fervent Prayers to the King of Kings for the Preſervation of ſo valuable a Life; and that He may pour down His choiceſt Bleſſings on your Majeſty's Royal (and truly Proteſtant) Conſort our moſt gracious Queen; on his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, and all your Royal Off-ſpring; and ſo increaſe them, that there may not be wanting, to our lateſt Poſterity, one of your Majeſty's Royal Line to fill the Imperial Crown of this Realm, who, following your great Example, may make them as happy as we are now; this ſhall ever be the hearty and conſtant Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt dutiful, moſt loyal and moſt obedient Subjects.

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Hon. William Kerr, Eſq, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Albemarle Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE Demiſe of our late moſt gracious Sovereign your deareſt Father, of ever illuſtrious and glorious Memory, having affected our Hearts with a Senſe of the deepeſt Sorrow, and with that awful aſtoniſhing Silence that ſudden and ſurprizing Strokes occaſion, we beg Leave to break through the Preſſures of our Grief to condole ſo great a Loſs, and to loſe ourſelves in the Admiration of the Glories of a Reign, filled up with forming and compaſſing of Deſigns the moſt noble and generous, the moſt wiſely laid down, and the moſt happily purſued for the Good of Mankind.

The holding the Balance of Europe, (the proper Province of our Britiſh Kings) the ſtudying the Relief of the Diſtreſſed of the Proteſtant Religion abroad, and the Eſtabliſhment of it at home; the bearing down the

Ani-

Animoſities, and compromiſing the Differences amongſt Foreign States threatning to ſet Europe in Flames; the preſerving the darling Liberties of the Subjects, their Trade, and the juſt Poſſeſſions of the Crown, and the meditating the laſting Security of all theſe to his expiring Breath, will make King George, now lamented, ſhine in Hiſtory amongſt the beſt and greateſt of our Kings, and tranſmit his Name fragrant to the lateſt Poſterity.

We at the ſame Time having a due Senſe of the Divine Goodneſs, do with thankful Hearts rejoyce to ſee your Majeſty fill and adorn the Throne, bleſs'd with the ſame Spirit and Diſpoſition of doing Good.

What Joy can fill our Hearts equal to that of ſeeing our Bleſſings continued to us in the Perſon of King George the Second; a Prince zealouſly affected to the Proteſtant Religion; who has given early Proofs in the Field of an intrepid Courage, and at Home in his Regency of a ſteady and prudent Conduct; whoſe conſummate Wiſdom and Goodneſs directs him to ſtudy to ſettle the Peace and Tranquility of Europe, as a Work that ſeems reſerv'd for one of the Glories of his Reign; and whoſe paternal Affection moves him to exerciſe his moſt peculiar Care to maintain and ſecure the Liberties and Properties, the Civil and Religious Rights of all his People, and in every Reſpect to promote their Proſperity and Happineſs.

The happy Proſpect, Great Sir, your high Princely Qualities give us of a glorious Adminiſtration, receives a great Acceſſion by the Bleſſing Heaven has beſtowed upon your Majeſty in our gracious Queen Caroline your Royal Conſort, the Solace of your Cares, fitted by her high Station and bright Example to render Religion and Virtue as faſhionable as they are lovely; who having been from her tender Years the Admiration of the preſent Age, will be ſet down by good Princeſſes as their inimitable Pattern in all future ones.

May your Majeſty's Reign be long and proſperous, may it be fill'd up with Bleſſings to all the Proteſtant Intereſt; may you reign in the Hearts of a grateful obedient People made happy by your Government; may our gracious Queen be always their Delight; and may your numerous Royal Progeny, the Hopes of the preſent Times, be for ever the deſcending increaſing Glory and Happineſs of theſe Nations.

Given under the Seal of our Borough, this 19th Day of July, 1727.

The following humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Council of the Town of Dunbar, has been preſented to His Majeſty by --------- Cockburn, Eſq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

THE Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, who was the Father of his People, and by a juſt and mild Adminiſtration reigned in their Hearts and Affections, was a Matter of the greateſt Concern and Surprize to us his faithful Subjects; but the happy Acceſſion of your Majeſty to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, ſerved at the ſame Time to calm our Minds, and to moderate our Grief, being fully perſwaded that what we have loſt in his late Majeſty, will be fully made up to us by his Royal Succeſſour; and that your Majeſty will be no leſs the indulgent Father of your People, and the Protector of their Religion, Laws and Liberties, and of the common Liberties of Europe.

The whole Conduct of your Majeſty hitherto gives us full Aſſurance of all this, which your late moſt gracious Declaration only confirms; wherefore nothing remains to us, but to wiſh Health, long Life, and a happy Reign to your Majeſty, over a loyal and dutiful People; and to do every thing in our Power for the Support of your Majeſty and your Government, which ſhall always be the ardent Deſire, and ſincere Endeavour of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Dunbar, July 3, 1727.

The following humble Addreſs of the Borough of Cullen, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Finlater and Seafield, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Cheſterfield Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates, Council and Inhabitants of the Borough of Cullen, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your peaceable and happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Realms; and give Thanks to God, that when He took our late moſt gracious Sovereign from us, for whoſe Memory we have the greateſt Regard, He at the ſame Time has been pleaſed to give this Kingdom a Proſpect of Flouriſhing under a Prince, who is as deſirous as he is able to make us great and happy.

We have the moſt abſolute Dependance upon your Majeſty's gracious Declaration in Council, and can have no Doubt but our Civil and Eccleſiaſtick Rights and Privileges will be ſafe under a Prince whoſe Throne is eſtabliſhed upon Liberty, whoſe Valour and Conduct is able to maintain and defend it againſt all Attacks of our Enemies; whoſe Knowledge of our Conſtitution, Laws and Cuſtoms, makes him fit and equal to the Charge of Government; and whoſe known Pleaſure and Inclination is to have his Subjects a free and happy People.

When we reflect upon the Bleſſing your People muſt enjoy under ſuch a Prince, we cannot doubt but they will all venture their Lives

Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majesty's just Title to the Crown, which is so necessarily connected with their own Freedom and Happiness; our Hearts and Hands shall never be wanting to support it.

That your Majesty may have a long, glorious and peaceable Reign over an obedient and dutiful People; and that you may late transmit the Crown to your Posterity, upon whose Heads may it ever continue, is the earnest Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most loyal, most dutiful, and most obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following humble Address of the Provost, Baillies and Council of the Burgh of Ayr, has been presented to His Majesty by William Stuart Esq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Loudoun, Lord-Lieutenant of the Shire of Ayr. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

WE should be strangely insensible, if we did not bear a Part in the universal Mourning for the Death of our most gracious Sovereign your Majesty's Royal Father, under whose auspicious Government the Enjoyment of our sacred and civil Rights was inviolable.

The withdrawing so great and publick a Blessing hath made such a just Impression on us, as nothing less than your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors could support us.

We adore the Divine Goodness which raised up the late glorious King William, of immortal Memory, to rescue us from Popery and arbitrary Power, and at last to render our Security against these perpetual, by procuring an Entail of the Crown on your most illustrious Family.

It is with inexpressible Pleasure and Satisfaction we now behold the Throne so well supplied by a Monarch, to whom the Royal Qualities, which are the Study and Attainment of other Princes, are natural.

The wise Conduct, the generous Disposition to maintain and establish Peace in your Dominions, and through Europe, the Foundation whereof was so successfully laid by your Royal Father; the known tender Regard for Religion and all the Interests of your People, which shine with a peculiar Lustre in your Majesty; your being bless'd of Heaven with a Royal Consort of consummated Virtue and eminent Piety, and an exceeding hopeful Progeny; do agreeably entertain us with a most assured Expectation of the Continuance and Increase of all our valuable Blessings, and an endless Train of Happiness even to latest Posterity.

We cannot but with joyful Transports of Soul congratulate your Majesty's peaceful Accession to the Imperial Crown of these your Kingdoms, most humbly intreating your gracious Acceptance of the fullest Assurance we are capable to give of our Readiness to maintain and defend your sacred Person and Government with our Lives and Fortunes against all your Enemies, solemnly declaring our unalterable Adherence to the Succession of the Crown, as established in your Royal Family.

That the Virtues of your great Dignity and sacred Trust may ever increase; that your Kingdoms may flourish, and Religion be their greatest Glory under your benign Influence, that your Majesty may far excell even your Royal Predecessors in Greatness and Honour; that your loyal Subjects may be happy in the long Life of your Majesty and Royal Consort our Gracious Queen; that there may never be wanting a Prince of your Family to sway the Scepter, worthy of his illustrious Descent, and that all the Royal Issue may be publick Blessings, is the sincere and fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most humble, most loyal, most faithful, and most obedient Subjects and Servants;

The Provost, Baillies, and Council of your Burgh of Ayr.

Sign'd in their Name and by their Appointment, by J. Montgomerie, Provost.

The following humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the City of St. Andrews, has been presented to His Majesty by Major Areskine, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Albemarle Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

WE, among the rest of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, most humbly intreat your Majesty's Permission to express our great Concern for the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign, and to congratulate your Majesty upon your Accession to the Throne of these Realms.

Your Majesty's inherent Royal Virtues, your Declaration to your Privy Council, and your most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament, must fill our Hearts with the most comfortable and greatest Expectations of Happiness under your Majesty's Reign, that any People can possibly enjoy, and must give us firm Assurance, that your Majesty will fully repair to us the Loss of your Royal Predecessor.

When we reflect upon these great Blessings we are to enjoy under your Majesty, and when we have the Prospect of the Continuance of them to our latest Posterity in your Royal and numerous Issue, we must beg Leave, with Hearts full of the greatest Duty, Love and Gratitude, to pray that the Almighty ty God may bleſs your Majeſty with Health, long Life, and a proſperous Reign.

May your Royal Conſort the Queen, the Prince of Wales, and all your Royal Off-ſpring, be a Comfort and Delight to your Majeſty, and an everlaſting Bleſſing to your People.

As theſe are our fervent Prayers, ſo we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that you may depend upon our moſt ſincere and hearty Endeavours to ſupport your Sacred Perſon and Government; and that we, upon all Occaſions, will give the ſtrongeſt Teſtimony of our being,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, loyal, and faithful Subjects and Servants,

The Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of your City of St. Andrews.

Signed in their Name, and by their Appointment, William Douglas, Provoſt.

The following humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Council of the Town of Haddingtoun, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Tweddale, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord William Manners Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AMong the many who approach your Royal Preſence, permit us, great Sir, to congratulate your Royal Majeſty upon your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors; the only Bleſſing that could alleviate our Grief for the Death of our late moſt gracious King.

Your Majeſty's early and renowned Valour in Defence of the common Liberties of Europe; your mild Adminiſtration, when for a ſmall Space the Reins of Government were put in your Hands; your intire Love to the Britiſh Nation, joined with the exalted and known Piety of your Royal Conſort our moſt gracious Queen, are Virtues only to be admired, but we never can ſet a juſt Value upon them.

So all that is left us to do, is, to aſſure your Majeſty of our firm and conſtant Obedience to your Majeſty's Government and Laws, and to wiſh you a long, happy and peaceable Reign over a loyal and dutiful People.

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Juſtices of the Peace, Burgeſſes, and other the Gentlemen and principal Inhabitants of the Corporation of Southmolton, in the County of Devon, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Samuel Cruwys, Eſq; Deputy Recorder of the ſaid Corporation, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord William Manners Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

YOUR Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Juſtices of the Peace, Burgeſſes, Gentlemen, and principal Inhabitants of the Corporation of Southmolton, do humbly preſume to approach your Sacred Perſon, to condole for the Loſs of their late moſt gracious Sovereign (your Royal Father) the Prince and Father of his Country.

And that your Majeſty would be pleaſed to accept of their Congratulation on your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne of Great Britain.

May your Majeſty's Reign (begun in a Time of Peace) be always proſperous: May Truth and Juſtice, Learning and Virtue, flouriſh under your Majeſty's Adminiſtration: May there be never wanting Iſſue of your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort, (endowed with your and her Royal Vertues) to continue to Poſterity the Bleſſings of a Government founded on the Laws (the Birth-Right of the People) and the Maintenance and Support of their Religious and Civil Rights and Liberties.

The following humble Addreſs of the Lord Provoſt, Baillies, and Town Council of the Burgh of Bruntiſland, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Rothes Lord Lieutenant of the Shire of Fife, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and faithful Subjects, take Occaſion to expreſs the Concern we were under upon the unexpected News of the Death of your Royal Father, under whom, and by whoſe prudent Management, we had the Happineſs to enjoy Peace and Tranquility at Home.

At the ſame Time it is Matter of great Pleaſure to us, that ſo great a Prince is ſo worthily repreſented by one, under whom, by God's Bleſſing, we may expect all the Fruits of a great and glorious Reign. Your Majeſty's Wiſdom, Moderation and Firmneſs having conſpicuouſly appeared in the Paſſages of your Life hitherto: Bleſſed be God, that we have in your Majeſty a Prince who has ſuch a Proteſtant Heart, Courage to ſtand by ſo good a Cauſe, a Royal Conſort ready to give Countenance, Life and Vigour to your Majeſty's Undertakings, and one who is the Mother of a hopeful and numerous Iſſue.

It is our moſt ſincere and hearty Reſolutions, even to the Expence of all that is moſt dear and valuable to us, to ſtand by your Majeſty againſt a Popiſh Pretender to the Crown of theſe Realms, and againſt all others your Majeſty's open or ſecret Enemies or their Abettors.

May God long preſerve your Majeſty, and render you happy in your Subjects; and let them continue to be happy under the auſpicious Reign of the beſt of Princes.

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the ancient Corporation of Carnarvon, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Wyn, Eſq; introduced ced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Albemarle Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, (though very ſenſibly affected at the Death of your Royal Father) humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your peaceable Acceſſion to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms; and this Nation, on the Felicity and Bleſſings we promiſe ourſelves under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

We cannot, without Tranſports, expreſs our juſt and grateful Senſe of the firſt Declaration of your Royal Mind in Parliament. Your tender Regard and Affection for the Liberties and Happineſs of your People; your great Eſteem for the Love and Affection of your Subjects; your paternal Care for our moſt excellent Conſtitution; and your ardent Deſire of ſecuring the full Enjoyment of our Religion and Civil Rights, joined with your Conduct and Experience, comprehend all the Royal Qualities that can be deſired in a Sovereign. When they are ſo manifeſtly united in your Royal Perſon, we think it our indiſpenſible Duty to make all ſuitable Returns of Zeal and Affection, inviolable Fidelity and Attachment to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government.

Your faithful Britons rejoyce in a very particular Manner, to obſerve the Virtues and diſtinguiſhing Qualities that they ſo juſtly admired in their Prince, ſhine more conſpicuous in their Sovereign.

Richmond, Auguſt 30.

This Day the Honourable Thomas Townſhend, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives of the Univerſity of Cambridge in the enſuing Parliament, attended by Mr. Simpſon one of the Squire Beadles of the ſaid Univerſity, waited on the King, in his Academical Habit, and in the Name of that Univerſity preſented to His Majeſty a Book of Verſes compoſed by the Members of the ſaid Univerſity, upon the Occaſion of the Death of the late King and his preſent Majeſty's Succeſſion to the Throne. Which His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly, and they had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

He afterwards with Mr. Simpſon waited on the Queen, and preſented another of the ſaid Book of Verſes to Her Majeſty; who was pleaſed to receive it very graciouſly, and they had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

Kenſington, Sept. 1. This Day their Majeſties returned hither from Richmond.
